INTRODUCTION

This Calendar is prepared for the conduct of the Uintah Boarding School during the year 1931-1932, and meets the requirements of General Superintendent's Circular No. 3.

Each employee is directed to familiarize himself with the regulations of this calendar, and particularly with those parts which apply to his or her individual responsibilities and duties. Employees are expected to take their respective assignments without further notice.

All employees in the Indian Service must bear in mind the peculiar task of the Service, must be a personal example, and do what they individually can to aid in the accomplishment of the task; and whatever their position, just put into the performance of their duties a spirit of instruction and cooperation. (158 Rules I.S.)

Furthermore, employees should avoid small personal differences among themselves and endeavor to discover common interests rather than to accentuate individual peculiarities. (158 Rules I.S.)

During the past year our school has made a very definite progress. We expect to continue in this direction. This can be accomplished only by the united efforts of all. Because we want to continue in our progress, employees will be expected to render full service for their salaries. If they are not giving satisfaction, they will be notified of that fact, and they will be expected to change their ways.

Before leaving Whiterocks, employees must secure the consent of the Principal. All school employees will assist in serving special dinners to pupils.

Certain minor changes in the program for the school may be made at any time by the Principal, approved by the Superintendent.

***

DISCIPLINE AND DEPARTMENT

*****

Frequent visits home are harmful to school interests and morale, especially when they interrupt or interfere with school activities. As a privilege, leave to pupils will be granted only as a mark of special merit, or in case of serious family sickness.

The boys' Adviser for the boys and the girls' Adviser for the girls shall keep monthly record of deportment on a percent basis for each pupil in their charge.

A good deportment roll for boys and girls shall be posted in their respective dormitories monthly. All employees who have pupils in assignment or detail, whether industrial or academic, are directly responsible to the school for the conduct of said pupils while in their charge. They should report any misconduct to the boys' Adviser or girls' Adviser.

Girls leaving the school grounds should be in the charge of a school employee or parents. A system of passes will be devised for the use of boys on leave.
